

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.
A DECLARATION
BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
IN GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED.

We the People

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a solemn and mutual Compact and original Agreement between them, and that the Liberty and Safety of the Subjects in the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the Separation.

That all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever one Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Form of Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Manner, as shall seem to them most likely to promote their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, in this and in all other Cases, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient Causes; and accordingly all Resolutions of the British Parliament are rejected, and the United Colonies by these Resolves do declare themselves free and independent States, absolving themselves from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all future Attempts at their Separation are hereby prohibited.
