

"Introduction To The Constitution" with Michael Badnarik

Saturday, July 31, 2010

9:00 am - 6:00 pm

Radisson Hotel Phoenix Airport North

427 North 44th Street (Downtown) Phoenix

Would it surprise you to discover that the United States is NOT a democracy?

Would you like to know - once and for all - what the "electoral college" is, and why we have it?

If you don't need a government permit to exercise your First Amendment rights, why do other people need a government permit to exercise their Second Amendment rights?

Would you sign the Declaration of Independence today if it meant that Homeland Security would arrest you for being an "enemy combatant"?

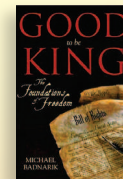

Michael Badnarik is an author, Constitutional scholar, and was the 2004 Libertarian nominee for President of the United States. He is currently traveling across the country presenting his highly acclaimed class on the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Even if you think you know the Constitution well, you'll be shocked at how much you were never taught. Come experience the passion and drama that shaped the birth of our country.

At the end of the day you will understand why it is important to continue "Lighting the fires of Liberty, one heart at a time!"

Full day class: $100

(Includes an autographed copy of Michael's book - Good to be King)

For more information call 512-461-0995

(alternate payment - 4 ounces of .999 fine silver)

Register now at www.ConstitutionPreservation.org

Michael Badnarik has created a constitutional primer that will edify and entertain schoolchildren and seasoned libertarians alike.

Congressman Ron Paul

